

Three Leading Medics Laud Snake-Bitten Youth

Three leading doctors—one a ranking American herpetologist, the others both veterinarians — today rallied to the side of 19-year-old Bob Howard, Jr., severely bitten by a treacherous Desert sidewinder last Saturday.

All three characterized the youth's "contributions to our growing knowledge" of reptiles — particularly venomous Desert species—as an "instrumental service to this community and to the West."

THE DOCTORS ARE Dr. Herman Salk and Dr. Clarence Mersch, both veterinarians at the Palm Springs Animal Hospital, and Dr. Findlay Russell, director of the Laboratory of Neurological Research at Los Angeles County General Hospital.

The three, all approached separately by The Desert Sun, voiced—almost to the exact duplicate wording—the praise that young Howard holds a "keen and academic interest in reptiles as well as other animals."

And all three expressed the opinion that Howard could become "one of this country's leading herpetologists," if he determines that he wants to become one.

DR. MERSCH ALSO revealed that the young man, thrice bitten by venomous snakes in recent years, had indicated to him that he would eliminate all poisonous varieties from his collection as soon as he leaves the Desert Hospital where his condition is still reported as "fair to good."

Dr. Mersch, a well-reputed herpetologist who also maintains a collection of snakes—but of non-venomous varieties — in his home here, termed Howard one of the keenest students of reptilian lore he'd ever met.

"Practically speaking," Dr. Mersch declared, "he knows a great deal more about snakes than I do. I can tell you all the technical names, the native habitat and that sort of thing."

"But Bob can tell you where to find the snake it-

THE HOWARD BOY, son of millionaire sportsman Bob Howard and grandson of the late C. S. Howard, who owned Seabiscuit and other great horses, drew virtually the same acclaim from Dr. Russell.

The Los Angeles research wizard leaped into national prominence in May when he successfully treated a victim of a deadly tiger snake at Puente Park, near Los Angeles.

Only 3 Indian Land Bids Are Above Appraisal

A Beverly Hills construction company and two Palm Springs developers were the only successful bidders in the Bureau of Indian Affairs land sale, bids for which were opened yesterday at 1 p.m.

Only two bids were received on item No. 1, a 20 acre parcel located north of Vista Chino on Sunrise Way, and the high bidder was the Don Ja Ron Construction Company of Beverly Hills, which bid $125,000. The other bidder on the property was George Alexander of Palm Springs, who entered a bid of $115,000. The high bid was over the appraised valuation.

GEORGE ALEXANDER was successful in his bid of $90,000 for item No. 6 on the sale, a 20 acre parcel of land located on the northeast corner of Section 30, just south of the Palm Canyon Wash. He was the only bidder for this property and was over the appraisal.

The third successful bidder was Rose Benjamin Rose of Palm Springs, who bid $37,500 for a five acre parcel off South Palm Canyon Drive and to the west of Sahara Trailer park.

A TOTAL OF 23 bids were received from an even dozen individuals or companies for eight of the nine parcels up for sale. No bids were received on item No. 4, a two-third divided interest in a two acre piece in Section 14. Bids were received on the other parcels, but all were under the appraised value, and will not be considered for approval by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

TWO BIDS were received on parcel No. 2, a two-thirds undivided interest in Section 35 on South Palm Canyon Drive. A high bid of $100,000 was still under the appraisal.

One bid was received on item No. 3, a five acre parcel located just off Sunrise, south of Tahquitz, on Section 14. The bid, which was under the appraisal was $1,727.

Parcel No. 5, 10 acres located in Section 22, almost against the mountains, brought a bid of $2,300, also below the appraised value.

A TOTAL OF eight bids were received for a five acre piece of land located on Section 14, facing on Ramon Road a few hundred feet from Sunrise. The high bid was made by L. Alexander of Los Angeles, who was under the appraised value at $66,800.

A single bid of $2,300 was made on item No. 8, located in Section 22, six miles east of Palm Canyon Drive, also under the appraised value.

THE BUREAU OF Indian Affairs does not divulge the appraised value of any of the land, but will say if a bid is lower or higher than the appraised value.

Tony Travers, a representative of the Don Ja Ron Construction Company, at the opening of the bids, said that the land which his firm had successfully bid would be used for homes and rental units to be constructed by the company.

The property acquired by Alexander is zoned R-1 and is located close to the Palm Springs Golf Course.

Rose Rose, also present at the opening of the bids, said she has no plans for her newly acquired land.

SCHOOL BUDGET GIVEN 'APPROVAL'

The Palm Springs Unified School District board last night adopted a tentative $2,726,826 budget for the coming year.

The new budget, which will receive a non-time public hearing at the high school music room on Aug. 4, calls for an approximate 10 per cent increase over this past year, or approximately the percentage of estimated enrollment increase.

IN THE SAME session, the board apparently postponed for at least another year possible activation of a requested program for severely mentally retarded children.

Cuba Launches 'Hate' Campaign

WASHINGTON — UPI — George V. Allen, director of the U. S. Information Agency, said today a Communist-inspired $100,000,000 "hate America" campaign has been launched from Cuba in hope of undermining United States prestige in this hemisphere.

On Narcotics Charges

Suspects Face Superior Court

The last six of eight narcotics suspects — all arrested in lightning-fast raids shortly before dawn last Saturday — have been bound over for arraignment in Riverside County Superior Court at Indio. Justice Judge Eugene Theriault ruled Thursday that the six must face arraignment at 9:30 a. m., July 5, in the Indio court.

ALL SIX INDICATED in testimony at yesterday's preliminary hearing that they would plead guilty to the charges brought against them.

Some board members later indicated a personal belief the program would materialize "eventually," though Supt. Dr. Dwight Twist and board president Dr. Bernard Pollak questioned whether such a program is a legitimate school endeavor.

DR. BERNARD Pollak, board president reiterated that the requested program requested is "social welfare," but stated the board is deeply interested in the problem. The board instructed Dr. Twist to prepare another report for the July 14 board meeting. The board and administration emphasized that a hastily prepared program could cause more harm than good.

The program requested was for "trainable" retarded children. State law requires a program for "educable" retarded children.

THE BOARD received a letter from county superintendent Dr. Ray W. Johnson stating the county office's policy on "trainable programs" is to leave it entirely to those districts who wish to maintain such a program.

Included are Gary Driskell, 26, of 111 North Calle Rolph; Carl Edward Missouri, 32, of 364 South El Segundo; Benjamin F. Smith, 32, of Cabazon; Walter Caldo Rhodes, 33, of 881 East Arenas Road; and Minnie Lee Williams, 26, and Ada Doris Walker, 35, both of Cabazon.

TWO SUSPECTS who were arraigned Tuesday went before the Indio court for arraignment today. They are Sammy Mack Flemming, 26, and Selmar Green, 45, both of whom gave 609 Cedar Street as their address.

Assassination Attempt Fails In Venezuela

President Injured By Bomb Blast, Top Officer Killed

CARACAS, Venezuela — UPI — President Romulo Betancourt was injured and a top-ranking Venezuelan officer was killed today in an apparent assassination attempt against the President.

Betancourt's naval aide, Capt. Lopez Parra, was killed by a bomb blast and Interior (Defense) Minister Gen. Jose Lopez Henriquez and his wife were seriously injured.

COL. ARMAS PEREZ, head of Betancourt's armed guard, also was injured.

First reports conflicted on where the bomb came from. Radio newsmen said it was thrown at a line of official cars in which the government men were riding. Other sources said it was planted in the defense minister's vehicle. The explosion came as the car turned into Avenida de los Proceres in downtown Caracas.

BETANCOURT'S CAR was heavily damaged.

Word of the assassination attempt spread like wildfire. The army rushed tank and troop reinforcements to the presidential palace, apparently fearing the attack was a prelude to a revolutionary coup.

The assassin or assassins struck as the Betancourt entourage was en route to Army Day ceremonies.

Lumumba Named Congo's Premier

LEOPOLDVILLE — UPI — National Congolese movement leader Patrice Lumumba became the Congo's first premier today in parliamentary investiture proceedings in the Senate.

THE BOARD received a letter from county superintendent Dr. Ray W. Johnson stating the county office's policy on "trainable programs" is to leave it entirely to those districts who wish to maintain such a program.

LOW SWINGING GROUND BREAKING was conducted by Supervisor George Berkey, right, and Indio mayor James O'Brien, as they blasted off with sand wedges from the Westward Ho golf course now under development two miles west of Indio. First nine holes of the 6,700-yard 18-hole course is planned for a January opener by owner-developer J. E. "Doc" Gurley, fourth from left (plaid shirt).

Sales and use tax receipts continued to show an increase during the third quarter of fiscal 1959-60, Shelby V. Langford, city director of finance, reported today.

Receipts for the quarter this year were $142,110, compared to $138,819 for January, February and March of 1959.

Total for the first three quarters this year is $332,190. Langford pointed out that the collections are made by the state and are received by the city approximately 90 days later. The figures reported are gross collections and do not reflect the collection expense or the five per cent shared with the county.

SUMMER STORMS LASH OHIO VALLEY

By United Press International
Summer storms unleashed a deadly fury of tornadoes and record rains at the Ohio Valley Thursday.

The tempests smashed homes and farms, knocked out communications and sent rivers surging over their banks in Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky. Severe flooding was feared.

FOUR LIONS escaped their open air pit at a Louisville zoo when a record five inches of rain in nine hours collapsed a concrete wall. Three were shot at once. The fourth roamed wild for eight hours before being shot.

At least seven deaths and dozens of injuries were blamed on the rain, wind and lightning that raged from the Mississippi to the Appalachians. Four persons were killed in Kentucky, two in Illinois and one in Indiana.

TWO PRIVATE planes were reported missing over Ohio or the east as the storms swept the area.

Meantime, weathermen in Florida said a potentially dangerous squall area in the southwest Gulf of Mexico was not expected to grow into the season's first hurricane.

Cost of Living Hits New High

WASHINGTON — UPI — Living costs crept to a new record high in May for the fourth month in a row, the government reported today.

Higher grocery prices pushed the Labor Department's consumer price index up by one-tenth of 1 per cent to 126.3 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Coast Guard Lightship Sinks After Ramming

NEW YORK — UPI — The historic "eye" of the world's biggest harbor — Ambrose Lightship—was rammed by a passing freighter in thick fog today and sank at its lonely anchorage eight miles off New York City. But its Coast Guard crewmen were saved.

The 6,125-ton American freighter Green Bay, outward bound collided with the U. S. Coast Guard's "Relief 505" at 4:30 a.m. in the blacked-out gateway to New York harbor, the world's busiest sea lane.

The stubby, 129-foot lightship sank in 90 feet of water, leaving the main Ambrose channel temporarily unguarded. The Green Bay was only slightly damaged. It launched a boat at once and fished the lightship's nine crewmen to safety.

Tells of Plans To Leave Post Due to Health

Cites Khrushchev's Statements to Support Charge

WASHINGTON — UPI — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter accused Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev today of meddling in U. S. internal affairs by his comments on presidential elections.

Herter also told his news conference—the first he has held since the collapse of the summit meeting in Paris—that he has decided to retire from the State Department no matter which party wins the November elections.

ON STILL another subject Herter denied flatly that the United States in any way suggested to Tokyo that it should call off President Eisenhower's trip to Japan.

Meeting with newsmen on the 10th anniversary of the Communist attack in Korea, Herter used the news conference to call for a "reaffirmation of the free world's determination to resist aggression and our support for the United Nations."

HERTER SAID in his comment on Khrushchev that the Soviet leader's statements that he would not deal with President Eisenhower and his letters to Democratic political figures came about as close to interfering in U. S. domestic affairs as anything he could think of.

Khrushchev recently quipped that if it were true that the U. S. candidate endorsed by the Soviet Union would lose, he would endorse Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Mostly sunny today and Saturday. Afternoon winds 20 to 30 miles per hour at times northern valleys. A little cooler today. High temperatures 95 to 105 upper valleys, 105 to 113 lower valleys. High yesterday was 110, low 73.

Junior Women's Club Honored For Contributions to Community

The Palm Springs Junior Women's Club, which conducted a virtual monopoly of awards given in district competition in April, last night received public recognition for its efforts from the Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Women's Club and the Village.

A tri-sponsored dinner feted the 1959-60 officers of the Junior Women's Club at the Palm Springs Lanes Banquet Room.

MRS. JACK KOEHLER, immediate past president of the organization, accepted a plaque with the names of the three donors on it. The plaque lauded the Junior Women's Club's efforts to build a "better community" in Palm Springs.

in its third year of organization here.

JIMMY COOPER, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, told the audience that the 18 members of the Junior Women's Club had made "significant contributions" to the Village during the past year. Cooper also read a letter which officially commended the organization.

A letter from Ward J. Risvold, publisher of The Desert Sun, was read to the assembled group by Desert Sun News Editor George Laine. The letter pointed out that the Junior Women's Club had unselfishly sought out those areas of work in Palm Springs which guaranteed community growth.

Other last year's officers of the Junior Women's Club who were present at the event were Mrs. Richard Kimberly, first vice president; Mrs. Richard Hill, treasurer (and 1960-61 president of the group); Mrs. Marty Johnson, recording secretary; and Mrs. Sid Watson, parliamentarian. Mrs. Charles Schwenck, senior coordinator from the Indio Women's Club, was also in attendance.

THE FIRST PLACE awards taken by the Junior Women's Club in the De Anza District competition were for excellence in literature, federation, crafts and needlework, safety and music.

Second place awards were for mental health, Americanism, health and international affairs. Third place awards went to the "Build a Better Community" award, a Junior-Senior Women's Club Cooperation award was also given.

By RUTH STEINER
Leaving Sunday, June 26, on a 2½ month European cruise, Mrs. Adell Lingo will sail from Long Beach on the Orsova. Accompanying Mrs. Lingo is Eva Deering, who has been in her employ for eight years. Their tour will take them through the Panama Canal, landing in London. From here they will take a 48 day tour of Europe, returning home Sept. 11. A number of friends of both ladies will be at the pier to wish them bon voyage and happy landings.

Recent visitors at the Mr. and Mrs. Mont R. Frederick home on Abnoria Trail was their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Frederick and small daughter, Kim. They spent a week enjoying the desert before returning to their home in Silver City, New Mexico.

A gala party was celebrated at Olga's El Besame Mucho Saturday night when friends gathered to share the delicious bake and wish Stan Paine a happy birthday. Those attending were Ed Frisby, Isabella Parker, Ann Fitzgerald, Harry Oliver, Frank Popenoe, Mike Walters, Sherman Taylor, Sue Ally, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Iverson. Luau torches furnished soft lighting for dancing on the patio later in the evening.

Visiting at the Major Slater home in honor of Father's Day, was their daughter and family of Covina, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly and three children, Debra, Patrick and Karen, who spent the weekend here.

Joan Wyman left Thursday, June 23, via Pan American jet for Hawaii, while there, she will take a plane trip of all the outer islands around Honolulu, returning home July 7.

Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Jones left for their annual summer vacation spent at their home at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Jones will remain all summer, while Doug will not doubt make several trips back here, as he is one of the many who enjoy the desert summers.

A number of Palm Desertites are enjoying the summer in Yucata. Mrs. Belle Keightley, the Bob Brooks and Roy Verniers are already there, as is Mrs. Adell Lingo until her departure for Europe Sunday. Others going soon will be the Herb Shaws who leave Monday to spend the remainder of the summer there, and will occupy Mrs. Lingo's home, returning to the desert around Oct. 1. After July 4,

Stone Named To Planning Commission

Bogert Also Fills
Vacancies on Other
Village Agencies

Mayor Frank Bogert, with the approval of the City Council, last night appointed Joel Stone to fill the vacancy left by Councilman Ted McKinney on the Palm Springs Planning Commission.

IN OTHER APPOINTMENTS made last night, Mayor Bogert named Robert Buckner to fill the vacancy left by Frances Bigelow on the Library Board; re-appointed Mrs. Ruthyn Wood and Mrs. Ida Hotchkiss to the Health Center Board, and re-appointed Muriel Fulton and Tom Kieley to the Park and Recreation Board.

One position on the Park and Recreation Board was held in abeyance.

Presently held by John Hollinger, it will await consideration of a new council policy which would determine whether a council member would set as a member or ex-officio member of the board.

IF THE COUNCIL changes its present ordinance to have councilmen sit as ex-officio members on the board, the mayor will make the appointment from three names recommended by the board.

The three are Hollinger, Roger Williams and Frank Prince.

Villager Attends Accountant Meet

SACRAMENTO — Mrs. Jewel M. Locke of Palm Springs was among the more than 225 members and their families from all over California attending the four day 1960 annual meeting of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants at the El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento, June 19-22.

Dana Latham, U.S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., J. S. Seidman, president of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, New York, and Roswell Magill, former Under Secretary of the Treasury and nationally known tax attorney, headed the list of prominent speakers addressing the meeting of the professional Society.

Superior Court Arraignment Set

Alvin Harrison, charged with the burglary of the Palm Springs High School administration building on Oct. 10, 1959, has been bound over to Indie Superior Court following preliminary hearing here.

Justice Judge Eugene Therleau ordered Harrison to appear at 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, in the Indie court for arraignment on the charge.

Magazine Tells Story of Desert Trailer Resorts

Featuring a six-page layout of pictures and copy, Popular Mechanics July issue — which will be on the newsstands June 28 — highlights Palm Springs area trailer parks in an article entitled "Trailers Join The Country Club."

Written for Popular Mechanics by Thomas E. Stinson, Jr., the story tells of the tremendous advances in trailer living. As an example, it points particularly to Bing Crosby's Blue Skies Trailer Village and the Sahara Trailer Park.

Also mentioned in the article is a new feature in overnight trailer parking.

It also points out that the idea of featuring a series of parallel driveways alongside utility islands, will be used in a $2.5 million vacation marina on the west shore of the Salton Sea.

AFTER SUN-SET

Troupers Aid 'Damn Yankees'

By GEORGE LAINE

There are all kinds of stories within the broad framework of a musical comedy — there almost has to be — but there's a most unusual depth of stories attendant to the forthcoming production of Palm Springs Playhouse's "Damn Yankees."

The stories differ, of course, because people differ.

BUT THE BACKGROUND on most of the people in "Damn Yankees" mixes a curious union of the funny, the dramatic, the human, the tragic — virtually every emotion is touched upon. Take Wilson Coates — "Slim" to his friends — and Marianne Fitzgerald. They have one thing in common — both are writing their "comeback" stories with the Playhouse troupe.

Both are dramatic stories, both entirely human in their content. MRS. FITZGERALD underwent a major throat operation just when it seemed she was on the threshold of a superb opportunity in musical comedy.

Behind her she had achieved a remarkable background that included a degree in Ohio State's School of Music, vocal roles with the Don Bestor Orchestra and the original Four Aces — in Pittsburgh's highly-rated William Penn Hotel and the Hotel Henry — before jumping into featured roles in the Columbus (Ohio) Light Opera Company. (She played in "The Student Prince," "Desert Song" and "My Maryland" with the company.)

THE OPERATION stalled that budding career. For two years, Marianne couldn't even speak — let alone reveal what had formerly been a well-modulated, well-controlled lyric soprano voice.

"When she could speak," said W. J. (Fitz) Fitzgerald, "her voice came out a basso profundo." Still, it was through her husband's encouragement that Marianne sought out Martin Beck and took a shot at the casting call for "Damn Yankees." The audience which comes on for next Thursday's premiere in the Riviera Hotel's Convention Hall ought to get together in a separate round of applause for the woman's sheer drive. (And perhaps a second round for her husband's confidence in her abilities.)

HEALTH — OR LACK of it also drove "Slim" Coates out of a prosperous career as a songwriter, singer, bandman and into a Desert Retreat.

In 1942, Coates shelved his club tours of New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania — he sang songs, man — and migrated to California. After a stint as a radio script writer, Slim resumed his song writing chores and turned out such melodies as "Queen For a Day" — still the theme of the TV show — "Out of a Dream," "Kilroy Was Here," "The Hogan Song" and scores of others.

THE BEST PART of this particular scene for Slim was that he not only wrote the songs, but put together the ensembles (trios, quartets, quintets, etc.) and sang the songs himself. This so impressed the recording folks in the Southland area that he held contracts (at various times) to record for Exclusive, Coral, Coast, Castle, Four Star, Bullet, Crystal and a couple of other miscellaneous labels.

In 1953, he shelved it all — on doctor's orders — and headed for Palm Desert where he has built himself a home.

Slim has already made a fairly indelible impression with a performance as Frank Galloway in the Palm Desert Players' "Accent on Youth" in January and with a poolside comedy bit at the "Backstage Roundup" for the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well.

SLIM PLAYS A lifetime baseball addict in "Damn Yankees" and we have the estimation of Martin Beck to rely on for the forecast that Coates will do a superlative job.

It's great to see Slim — and Marianne — back on the boards after a lengthy absence for both. You'll see what I mean next Thursday.

Youth Center's Junior High Dances to Start

Junior high dances, an annual feature of the Palm Springs Youth Center's summer program, will begin on July 1, it was announced today. James Dunn, acting director of the Youth Center for the balance of the summer, said that the dances would be held each Friday night. In addition, Dunn said, high school dances are also in the planning stage and will be launched soon, probably in July. They are to be staged in joint sponsorship with the Palm Springs City Recreation Department, he said. The Palm Springs Youth Center is open daily except Sunday from 1:30 p.m. and from 7-10 p.m.

Spain Okehs Location

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Paramount studios has received permission from the Spanish government to use the famous 14th Century Towers of Serrano for scenes in "The Boy Who Stole a Million."

The film is being made on location at Valencia, Spain. It stars Virgilio Texeira, Marianne Benet, Maurice Reyna and Harold Kasket.

THE LIVELY ARTS

'Acis and Galatea' Is British Triumph

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI) — Some British singers and players scored a remarkable triumph with Handel's "Acis and Galatea" by taking much of the quaintness out of it and submitting the timelessness of art. Not all of the quaintness to be sure. This is an antique "masque" rather than an opera and Handel was striving to please a very special 18th Century public. Some marks of drastic aging are not to be concealed.

BUT HANDEL HAD much bright and fresh creative genius to lavish on trifles, and this is what the performers worked with, performing it straight with no effort to create an extraneous atmosphere of a long gone day. The principal roles were taken by Joan Sutherland and Peter Pears, who are well known to Americans, backed by the St. Anthony Singers and the Philomusica Orchestra under Sir Adrian Boult (Lyre-Bird 6001-12).

Sir Thomas Beecham in an exercise of his acute, if mellowed musicianship, did wonders with Schubert's early symphonies, the D major and the B flat. Usually listeners are disappointed by these teen-age stabs at the symphonic form, especially if they anticipated the later Schubert of the "unfinished" and the great C major.

SOMEHOW, (and without violence to the scores, of course.) Sir Thomas makes light of structural thinness and of repetitious gropings while making much of the pure and joyous lyrical qualities of this lyrical master. His orchestra was his Royal Philharmonic and he handles the Schubertian lines so subtly you hardly realize it is a big orchestra (Capitol-7212).

The first recording of the esteemed St. Louis Symphony under its new conductor, Edouard van Remoortel is of a suite from Prokofiev's opera, "The Love of Three Oranges," and the same composer's Scythian Suite. Persons curious about the musical qualities of this 34-year-old Belgian, who has been conducting since he was 18, can't tell much. This music offers no conductorial challenges. The orchestra plays as beautifully as ever (Columbia-MS6132).

Hitchcock Sets Film

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Alfred Hitchcock said he will produce and direct as his next project a film based on "Village of Stars," a new suspense novel by Paul Stanton.

The producer intends to keep the story line secret, at least until the novel is published. "After that," Hitchcock said, "millions of persons will think they know what I intend to do."

Pestiferous Octopus

WASHINGTON, D. C. — It is not necessary to go whole hog and call Government the enemy of man, but Albert Jay Nock did so in his book "Our Enemy — The State." Thomas Jefferson nearly did so with his dictum — "least governed are best governed."

But, surely, it is axiomatic to say that Government is the champion pest and intruder of human privacy. Even the "bad-guy - good-guy" distinction is hard to make. All Government takes inexcusable liberties with the intimate affairs of its subjects.

OUR CASE in point involves three separate governments — the Nazi, the Austrian Republic and the USA. In the early 20th century a Philadelphia heiress, descendant of a Signer of the Declaration of Independence, married an Austrian aristocrat, and they had a son and a daughter, both sadly deficient in mentality.

The daughter died. The son, Oskar Teuber, born in 1906, was declared incompetent in 1933 by the pre-Nazi Austrian courts so that a guardian could be appointed for his person and property.

BUT IN 1939, Oskar Teuber, having undergone therapy, applied to have his competency reinstated. By 1941, with Austria nazified, he was declared okay — for a very suspect purpose. No mental defective was allowed to join the Nazi party. But funds and dues were needed. So Teuber became legally sane — and a Nazi.

Yet in 1942, applying for a marriage license, he ran into another rule of German National Socialism, a paternalistic form of rulership having once been a mental defective (although legally "cured") he was forced in 1944, as a condition of marriage, to undergo sterilization to protect the "purity" of the Germanic race.

WELL, POOR fellow, what was he now — sane or insane? With the Nazi collapse, the Austrian State was restored by inches, first under the Occupying Powers of the USA, Britain, France and Germany, later under full local sovereignty. But Teuber was now hoisted between the pillars of governmentopolis.

Section 32 of Trading with the Enemy Act, 1946, says that alien property must be returned if it is in our "national interest" to do so. The Austrian Treaty of 1955 is, in part, an instrument for returning war-seized property of Americans and Austrians. But the Justice Department, under the 1945 Act, holds that we have a "national interest" in keeping the belongings of the pathetic Teuber, a dues-paying Nazi.

ALL THREE Governments — ours, Hitler's, and Austria's — have combined to pester this unfortunate man (now living obscurely with his wife in Salzburg) and to pay over his property, some of it located in Philadelphia. The latest claim made by private lawyers to Congress and the Federal Government is that Teuber never was a Nazi. How could he be, a sterilized incompetent, not even eligible to perpetuate the Master Race?

The whole yarn doesn't prove much about the victim, but proves a lot about the institution called Government. It should be taken like sleeping pills — as little as is absolutely necessary to get by.

2 Months Have Taken Toll

WITH PRESIDENT EISENHOWER IN HAWAII — The last two months — since his troubles began with the shooting down of the U-2 spy plane — have taken their toll on President Eisenhower.

He is not as tired and depleted looking as certain correspondents on this sometimes hapless mission have written. But he has in the past looked better and probably has felt better. He could use a physical and mental vacation, but there's an unreasonably good chance that as soon as he settles down quietly at the Kanae Marine Air Base and waggles a golf club or two, Khrushchev or some other irritant will demand his presence back on the job in Washington.

IT WAS A HECTIC and harrowing voyage in many respects. By comparison the President's 11-nation tour to three continents last December and his streak through South America in February were sheer breezes. Everything went right on those ventures, the lone jarring note being an inconsequential demonstration by students in Montevideo and the display of a few Castro posters by kids in Rio de Janeiro and Santiago.

This tour started out with the outrageous curses of Nikita Khrushchev still sounding around the world. Not in the memory of the grayest beard among the correspondents accompanying Eisenhower there is a parallel to this personal abuse of an American President by the head of a country with which we maintain diplomatic, cultural and business relations.

IN ANCHORAGE there was a plea to him to reverse the decision to cut a third or more of the fighter defense of the 49th state — as proposed in a money-saving move. In Manila's crushing heat he was asked for more of everything, and he heard reports of shocking corruption in government circles.

In Manila, whose people were wonderfully warm to him, the President also got the word that the Japanese trip was off. It was to have been the big and significant substitute for his lost trip to the Soviet Union. Now this one was off too.

HE HAD BEEN deprived of chances to expose his friendly face and tell his earnest story to a total of a third or a billion Soviet and Japanese persons.

There followed a blessed day at sea, marred by the fact that his nautical peace force cruised at an extraordinary 50 knots to avoid any enemy subs and was heavily guarded on the surface, below the water and in the sky. The carrier Ticonderoga, part of the task force, carried atomic weapons for its fighter planes.

THE WELCOME in Taipei was superb, but a hundred miles away the cocksure Chinese Reds brutally assaulted Quemoy, as if daring like to invoke his right to regard an attack on that island as preliminary to an invasion of the main island — which we are pledged to go to war over.

Then the humiliation of the noisy demonstrations against him on Okinawa, an island which cost America thousands of lives. The reception in Seoul was memorable but the next day he stood thoughtfully on the dormant but malignant front, which our troops apparently must guard through eternity.

A sad trip, this vaudeville. A terribly sad trip.

STAN DELAPLANE:

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Summer's just started, To me it's a riddle, How do they figure That today's in the middle?

Summer started last Tuesday and, according to my World Almanac, is slated to end September 22.

That's 93 days, inclusive. Not having an adding machine, I had to count that on my fingers, both hands, going around 9.3 times.

So I can't figure why this, June 24, is Midsummer's Day. Only four days gone by and 89 to go — and it's the middle!

ANYWAY, this is Midsummer's Day. One of my Books of Knowledge says it's an old Pagan festival.

Well, maybe the old boys had something there. The figured it was the middle of summer when the days stopped getting longer and started getting shorter.

Sounds logical.

NOT ONLY are the days getting shorter but so is the old man's bank balance.

What with this being June and the month of brides and all of those double envelopes with the engraved cards done up in tissue paper announcing the upcoming nuptials of Miss So-and-So, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. (first name, middle name(s) and last name) This-and-That, to Mr. Blank.

Glad they remembered him.

SO WE HAVE to send them something to be laid out on a table with other items to be admired by the assemblage.

Being asked for advice on what to give, advice that will probably be ignored, I say, hopefully:

"I know that girl. How about a can-opener?"

Soundly rebuffed, I try to make amends, by adding:

"Maybe it could be a jeweled can-opener, eh? Sort of unique."

So I went back to figuring tomorrow's entries.

SEE WHERE, according to The Desert Sun, County Supervisors are still struggling for an idea on how to keep sand from blowing across Highway 99-etc. a few miles north of town.

Blocking traffic and detouring the heavy, smelly, noisy trucks through the heart of Palm Springs.

AMONG IDEAS advanced was one asking erection of snow fences such as line the railroad tracks in Montana, Wyoming, and other northern states where there's a clear sweep for the winds.

But, seems to me, that while these fences balk wet, packed snow, they'd let dry, fine sand right through.

HOW ABOUT TREES or shrubbery? Something fast growing and not too costly to maintain?

The Stylish Male

"The vest is definitely back," said the tailor looping the tape measure around my waist. He cinched it up and read the number. "Grown a bit, haven't we?"

"A year ago, you couldn't have sold a vest with a court order. Today, about half our customers want a vest. It is the greatest change in men's fashions since the coat with the belt in the back."

TRUE, I HAVE been noticing a number of vests lately—Grandma used to say anybody with a weak chest should wear a vest. So there are some healthy aspects to the style.

Nobody seems to know exactly how men got on the new fashion.

OUR BANKER always wears a vest. But I consider it part of a banker's uniform. It shows conservatism. Look around any race track and you never see a vest. (I do not include those flashy Tattersall things. If my banker were one of those, I would move the account.)

Some of the tailors blame it on President Eisenhower. He put on a vest the minute he got out of the Class A's.

IN THE PAPERS the other day," said the tailor, "I notice Eisenhower wore a vest in Manila. That's hot country, right?"

"Like a Sheriff's pistol. Filipino dress is a pleated shirt with the tails hanging out."

"So Eisenhower wears a vest. Look at it this way: No matter how light you get the material, a vest is bound to make you hotter. He must feel pretty strong on vests—like he wasn't dressed without it."

I ORDERED a vest with the suit. (We can always wear it with working pants; I don't know anything handier for nails than the four-pockets on a vest.)

A vest came with the suit when I got my first pair of long pants. And for years thereafter, we always got a vest with our suits. (Two pairs of pants too. Remember?)

I don't remember exactly when vests just disappeared. But the tailor said it was during World War II.

"SAME TIME THEY took the cuffs of the trousers and the flaps off the pockets. It was to save material. Do you want pleats on the trousers?"

"Should I? Pleats are square, aren't they?"

"They are good for camouflaging the stomach. If you wear the coat open. If you wear a vest, that will do the same thing."

"SOME SAY IT'S the Italian look," said the tailor. "And some blame it on the Continental influence. But I say it's politics. Look at Nixon. Never wore a vest until he was Vice President for a year."

"The minute he put on a vest, I said to myself: 'There's a man who's thinking of the Presidency.'"

"What about President Truman?"

"THE DOUBLE-BREADED type. Even when double-breasted suits went out President Truman wore them. Along with the bow tie. A double-breasted suit cuts down the spread in the middle and you don't need a vest."

"Remember Truman had been in the haberdashery business. He didn't need anybody to tell him the tricks of dressing."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

McQueen for Daffy

HOLLYWOOD — Marion Brand's Pennebaker Productions is pulling for Steve McQueen, TV's Wanted — Dead Or Alive star, to star in a new Pennebaker movie project, Daffy. Daffy-titled yarn is described as an up-tempo'd version of one of Hollywood's daffiest hits, It Happened One Night. Instead of hitchhikers this one is about a guy and his gal who ride the rails to get where they're going: the final clinch.

McQueen's first star-billing stint, you may remember, was in a Paramount movie called The Blob. It made $6,000,000 for Paramount. It didn't make a star of McQueen, despite his billing, but it did pave the way to the medium that made him a star—TV. Now Steve's Blob producer, Jack Harris, is striving for the same with Ward Ramsey, in a TV series to be called The Spirit.

GEORGE RAFT got some "Chicago coin" together in an attempt to purchase Puccini's Restaurant in Beverly Hills from partners Frank Sinatra and Pete Lawford. It's been a co-headache, I hear, for the present owners to combine acting-producing chores with running a restaurant.

Sinatra, Paul Newman and Anthony Franciosa have all turned down the co-starring spot in Sanctuary, to be co-produced by Darryl Zanuck and his son Dick. Reason: the plot is "all Lee Remick's." Too true. If you've read Sanctuary and Requiem for a Nun, the two William Faulkner novels on which this one picture is based, you know that the two choicest roles belong to "Temple Drake" (Miss Remick) and to the colored woman (still uncast) who kills Temple's baby.

I WON'T BE surprised, however, if Bob Mitchum accepts the part, spurred by the others, of "Candy Man," Temple's procurer. Juliette Greco, the senior Zanuck's favorite femme star, won't be in this one.

My favorite "side" or the racy dialogue from Tomorrow — with Pictures, now playing at London's Lyric Theatre: "Having a child is like having a drunken house guest for life."

An attorney interviewing his client in a Los Angeles County Jail cell had this to say, "If we lose our case, through some unforeseen miscarriage of justice, where did you stash the loot?"

THOSE PEARLY teeth Elvis Presley flashed at you-all during the recent severely-dubbed Sinatra spec were store-boughten. Elvis bought 'em not in his home town of Tupelo, Miss., nor yet in his adopted home town, Memphis, but in Germany, during his Army tenure.

They're not really teeth, I might add, but caps for his own teeth, and he paid a German dentist only 80 bucks for the capping job... Leticia Roman, one of Sir Swivel's sexy side-kicks in GI Blues at Paramount, refused a date with the star. I asked why. "I don't believe in mixing business with pleasure," she said. "Besides, he said something about going sightseeing—but I've already seen all the sights in Hollywood!"

THEY'RE CBSURRING VIETNAM. Leigh to repeat her upcoming British telecast of Camille here in the U.S. Why bother when Greta Garbo, in the Late-Late Showings of MGM's Camille, is still the greatest Camille who ever lived (or "Died")? The Great Garbo's death scene in this picture will go down as one of the greatest in celluloid history and anyone who cares to challenge this claim can have his pick of weapons.

Maybe the rest of the country's TV viewers don't mind but the Tiseltown technicians who see their old movies butchered in the Late Late Shows are pulling their hair out by the roots. Several who were involved in the making of Juarez with Bette Davis and Paul Muni have called local station KHJ-TV and threatened to sue because station bosses cut 40 minutes of important footage out of the two-hour film to make room for commercials.

AS FOR KINGS Row and None But the Lonely Heart, I wouldn't blame all concerned if they insisted on having their names removed from the credits. These were great movies. They are now a shambles, and all because somebody seems to want to establish a speed record for those idiotic commercials.

Did you hear they're coming out with a new miracle drug that breaks the Jack Paar habit?

THIS MARTIN 404 is the air-going yacht of the W. A. (Monty) Monchiefs of Thunderbird and Gunnison, Colorado. They bought it in April from Allen Paulsen of El Dorado Country Club and, with the assistance of Jack

Williamson, completely re-designed the interior, which was large enough to seat 40 persons. Luxurious sofas and swivel chairs and bridge set-ups will reduce the passenger capacity to 20. The big plane is cream colored with gold trim, and the interior is being done in light blue and beige, accented by pale gold. The work is being done in Texas and the luxury craft will be ready to take to the airways by late summer.

SHOKKI II, right, one of Japan's outstanding theatrical stars, appears with the Grand Kabuki Theater of Japan when the spectacular centuries-old troupe, making its first visit to the Western World, opens the Greek Theater in Los Angeles on Monday night, June 27, for a two-week engagement. The notable company of 100 interpreters of Noh dramas, brilliant Bunraku plays and realistic dramas, in lavish sets and magnificent costumes. The premiere engagement is under the joint auspices of Japan's Society for International Cultural Relations and the Greek Theater Association.

Magnificent Costuming Used by Grand Kabuki Troupe

Magnificent masks and gorgeous costumes are worn during the vivid traditional dramas to be interpreted by the Grand Kabuki Theater of Japan when the stirring troupe performs in the Greek Theater of Los Angeles from Monday night, June 27, through Saturday, July 9.

Masks are required in certain traditional roles and stage hands are masked and dressed entirely in black so they are presumed to be invisible. Actors also use special types of makeup according to the characters they portray, making the villain or the hero always recognizable as such.

The raiment has been prescribed for centuries and some of the ornate costumes are so heavy that the actor needs the aid of an "invisible" stage assistant even to move from place to place.

Music and dance play important parts in the dramas. The musicians appear on the stage but in a separate portion set aside for them and interpret intricate scores corresponding to the accidental opera.

Three different plays will be given each night at the Greek Theater. During the first week the performances include "Kanjicho (The Subscription List)," "Tsubosaka Deva (Miracle at Tsubosaka)," and "Kago Tsurube (The Courtesan)." At The Door

Mrs. Tony Cosentino, of Chicago and Palm Springs, is at the Golden Door at Escondido this week.

Open New Bull Ring Sunday

The Grand Inaugural bullfight of the Plaza Monumental of Tijuana which will be held this Sunday, June 26, at 4 p.m., will attract a crowd of Palm Springs aficionados.

Third largest in Mexico, the Tijuana bull ring is owned by Sr. Lopez Hurtado, who also owns the Plaza Monumental in Juarez, Mexico. It has a seating capacity of 23,000.

Three of Mexico's top matadors, Alfonso Ramirez, Calesero, Rafael Rodriguez, and Antonio del Olivar will be fighting bulls from the J. Julian Liaguno ranch.

Among the Palm Springs planning to attend are: Janice and Frank Bogert, Jay and Bill Cody, Russ Wade, Roy Randolph, Pepe Callahan (who has the desert's favorite guitarist Julio Corona visiting here), The Ray Corlisses, and the Pierce Miltons, who are flying down from San Francisco. Most of these people will be attending the pre-inauguration ball being held at the Tijuana Country Club Saturday night by the Club Ole of San Diego. This ball will honor the matadors, who will appear at the new plaza the following day.

Mexico's greatest living matador Rodolfo Gaona is flying from Mexico City to open the gate for the first bull's appearance. Now 72 years old, Sr. Gaona is godfather of the new plaza.

Governor Pat Brown is sending a representative from California and many Hollywood stars will be there. As always, Gilbert Roland is taking a large party.

For information or tickets, contact Mrs. Ray Corliss, FA5-6437.

CHP Issues Warning to Boat Owners

Rules of Road On Highway Will Be Enforced—CHP

INDIO — Capt. Lloyd W. Watson, commander of the California Highway Patrol's Indio Area, cautions boat owners who tow their boats over public roads to be sure they have the proper turn signals and other safety requirements on their cars and trailers.

"California law requires trailers carrying loads that extend 34 inches or more to the left of the center of the steering wheel of the towing vehicle to be equipped with either signal lamps or an approved mechanical signal device," Watson said.

"OTHER EQUIPMENT required on trailers includes one red tail lamp, a license plate lamp, one red reflector and a stop lamp. Two tail lamps and two stop lamps are required on trailers first registered after Jan. 1, 1958. "In addition, the towing vehicle must be equipped with a mirror reflecting a view of the highway 200 feet to the rear."

HE EMPHASIZED that trailer hitch must be properly and securely mounted, with a legal safety chain to control the trailer if the hitch should fail.

"Finally, I want to remind every trailer owner that the maximum legal speed while towing a trailer of any kind is 45 miles an hour," Watson declared.

Eagle Mountain School Damaged

EAGLE MOUNTAIN — Vandalism or thwarted burglary left a gaping hole in the east wall of the Eagle Mountain School, John William Hall reported to sheriff's deputies.

The hole, reportedly drilled by hand tools, caused an estimated $150 damage. But a survey of school equipment failed to reveal any missing items. The matter is under investigation.

Budget Switch Gets City Okeh

A request for the transfer of $336.10 from community promotion and advertising to community promotion—Convention Bureau, within the Chamber of Commerce budget for last year, was approved by the City Council Wednesday night.

Health Center's Parking Okehd

Palm Springs City Council Wednesday night—acting on the receipt of a letter—approved the expanding of funds for a 30-40 space parking lot at the Health Center Building on Civic Drive. The job will be put out to bid by the Public Works Department.

JULY CALENDAR FOR B&B'S BARED

A complete program of events invited by the Coachella Valley during July for the Bachelors and Bachelorettes Club of Palm Springs has been outlined by Phio Pleigh in this week's club newsletter.

Meeting each Friday of the month, the club will have a ballroom and round dance workshop on the July 1. Osa Matthews will call an intermediate square dance on July 9. Don White Party will be held on July 16 and Osa Matthews will call again on the 23rd. A surprise event will be held July 30.

Local dances are held at the Palm Springs Playhouse but no dance has been set for next Friday night.

Instead local dancers have been invited by the Coachella Valley during July for the Bachelors and Bachelorettes Club of Palm Springs has been outlined by Phio Pleigh in this week's club newsletter.

JUDGE IN REQUEST FOR RE-LOCATION OF COURTROOMS

Superior Court Judge John G. Gabbert urged the Board of Supervisors this week to give consideration for placement in the courthouse of the two Superior Courts now housed in an old church two blocks away from the courthouse in Riverside whenever vacancies are created by moving departments to new quarters.

Judge Gabbert said present quarters of the two courts are not suitable for long term occupancy, and it is not feasible to spend money on their improvement.

His reminder of conditions was referred to the administrative officer.

Vandals Sought After Pillaging House in Indio

INDIO — Sheriff's deputies are seeking clues to the person or persons who went on a rampage, breaking windows and furniture in a house on the Alexander ranch at Avenue 58 and Pierce Streets in Thermal.

Lloyd Alexander reported to the sheriff's office that three windows and a front door had been broken on the north side of the house, and two windows had been broken on each of the other sides. Inside, a couch was torn, the cooler torn off the wall, two wooden chairs broken, and the refrigerator pushed over on its side.

The building was scheduled for renovation prior to the vandalism, Alexander stated. Damage was estimated at $200.

There are about 440 federal hospitals in the United States.

Three Building Permits for RM

RANCHO MIRAGE — Three building permits with a total valuation of $20,518 were issued in this area last week by the county building department office at Palm Desert.

Receiving permits were White Sun Guest Ranch, 43-990 Joshua Road, swimming pool, $3,000; H. Devermann, Mirage Road, dwelling, $14,518, and Helen Lloyd 71-468 Mirage Road, pool, $3,000.

Ramah Gives Fellowship to E. Blackman

Palm Springs Girl Awarded Honor by National Group

NEW YORK — Ellen Blackman, of 2088 Calle Felicia, Palm Springs, is one of 48 young people who have been awarded fellowships to the National Camp Leadership Institute of the National Ramah Commission, it was announced today.

The Institute, a specialized educational program, will train unusually gifted college freshmen in Jewish education and community leadership in preparation for their appointment to the staff of one of the five Hebrew speaking Ramah camps.

THE AWARD WINNERS are selected on the basis of both academic background and community service. The group of 48 is drawn from the United States and Canada, and meets at Camp Ramah in the Poconos, Lake Como, Pennsylvania for the summer.

The program is designed, in part, to accelerate the training of young men and women who will meet the staff needs of the rapidly expanding Camp Ramah system. The five existing camps are located in Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, California and Canada.

AN IMPORTANT part of the educational program of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, the camps are under the educational supervision of the Seminary's Teachers Institute.

They are operated by local committees in association with regional organizations of the United Synagogue of America.

Hot Stuff

ST. ALBANS, Vt. (UPI) — A display of stove styles at the Lake Champlain festival proved a bit too hot to handle. The display burst into flames and firemen were called to quell the blaze.

Dear Abby...

...By Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am an intelligent, attractive, well-dressed girl of 20. Everyone says I have loads of personality. I am a huge success with everyone — except the opposite sex. Some girl friends have told me I'd be more popular with men if I bought myself a few "curves." (I am 29-25-33, am 5 ft. 5 and weigh 125.) I don't see where this kind of cheating would do me any good. If a man got interested in me for my "figure," I'd have to tell him before we were married that it was artificial. What should I do? Does that kind of dishonesty pay?

"STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN"

DEAR "STRAIGHT": Many of your "straight up and down" sisters buy "curves" because they want to look better in their clothes — and it is not a matter of baiting their hooks with sponge rubber. It's no more "dishonest" than using artificial color on your cheeks and lips or putting an artificial curl in your hair. All's fair in love and war, and the war is on!

DEAR ABBY: I know a lady motorman who has so much electricity in her that when she takes her clothes off the sparks start to fly all over. I would like to know if there is any danger of her catching fire.

CLOSE FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: NO danger — unless she has a conductor.

DEAR ABBY: Don't adults with young children answer the telephone themselves any more? I am in business and use the telephone a great deal. And I am sick and tired of talking "baby talk" with some three-year-old who has answered the phone for "Mummy" and wants to play guessing games with me.

This morning I asked a child whose mother was down in the basement washing to please call her mother to the phone. Apparently the child was dazed on the way and forgot all about it. I waited on the line fully 15 minutes, then hung up. I couldn't call back because her receiver was off the hook half the day. I think children are cute — but not on the telephone.

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: I agree with you. And in this connection, now that we can dial long distance directly, many children have accidentally made some very costly long-distance calls while playing with telephones. I recommend toy telephones for children.

DEAR ABBY: You can tell 24-year-old "Miss L." that the 52-year-old "bachelor" she is running around with has a wife and children. Furthermore, there will be no divorce in this family. My husband's name belongs to my children and me. "Miss L." can expect nothing but ultimate disgrace and possibly a child's "th-out a name. His name goes with this family — and so does his income.

"A'S WIFE"

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

ELKS CLUB COLTS TO MEET VIKINGS

The Palm Springs Elks Club Colts, with a lopsided 18-1 victory over Indio's Tigers behind them, head for the Date City tonight for a game with the Indio Vikings.

Game time will be 6 p. m. in Padres Field there.

The Colts jumped on a series of Tigers pitchers, piling up 11 runs via seven hits in the "big" second inning.

Big hitter for the Village team was shortstop Kenny Morrison, who collected two triples and a double for his Tuesday night workout.

Loren Barkley and Carlos Reyes combined to pitch a one-hitter at the Tigers. Barkley yielded the only hit.

Ripley Rallies For Tourney Win

Frank Ripley had himself all but counted out of the Los Angeles Tennis Club's junior boys' singles yesterday but rallied with verve to defeat Fred Drilling of Culver City, 7-9, 8-6, 6-4.

The win placed Ripley in the semi-finals against upset - winner Chuck Rombeau of Studio City. Should Ripley defeat Rombeau in today's play, he will face the winner of another semi-final match which pits La Jolla's Bill Bond against El Cajon's Dave Sanderlin.

Dressen Has Braves in High Gear

Giants Drop Four Straight; Dodgers Win 6-2

By FRED DOWN

United Press International That shrill whistle you hear today means that Charlie Dressen has the Milwaukee Braves' pennant express in high gear.

And that dull thud is the hopes of San Francisco fans hitting rock bottom after a four-game sweep at the hands of the Braves that left the Giants 6 games behind the lead in the National League pennant race.

THE TEAMS passed each other Thursday like ships in the night

—The Braves apparently going on to challenge for their third pennant in four years and the Giants apparently going nowhere.

The score was 8-4 with Warren Spahn picking up his fifth victory and Ed Mathews hitting two homers and driving in four runs to lift the Braves within 2 games of the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates. The victory stretched the Braves' longest winning streak of the season to six games and dealt the Giants their fifth straight loss and ninth in 11 games.

THE BRAVES gained a full game when the Pirates were beaten, 3-1, by the St. Louis Cardinals, while the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2, in other National League games.

The Baltimore Orioles advanced to within a half game of the American League lead when they beat the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, in 11 innings and the Detroit Tigers topped the New York Yankees, 2-1.

THE CLEVELAND Indians defeated the Washington Senators, 7-6, and the Boston Red Sox routed the Kansas City Athletics, 13-4, in other American League action.

Spahn went the distance for the Braves to win his fifth game behind a nine-hit attack that included two hits each by Wes Covington and Frank Torre. Sam Jones suffered his seventh loss after being tagged for eight hits and eight runs in 5 2/3 innings. Four San Francisco errors made six of the Milwaukee runs unearned.

WILLIAMS LOSES NO-HITTER BID, BUT GIVES DODGERS WIN

MILWAUKEE (UP) —The Los Angeles Dodgers moved into Milwaukee for a series with the second-place Braves today, hoping the superb pitching of Stan Williams will be duplicated by Sandy Koufax.

Williams, who now owns a 6-1 record, set Cincinnati down Thursday night with six hits as the Dodgers defeated the Redlegs, 6-2, and brought themselves from 12 to 11 games out in the National League race.

FOR TONIGHT'S game against Charlie Dressen's Beertown Braves, Manager Walter Alston, who had threatened his team with fines for sloppy play, named strikeout artist Koufax (2-8) to pitch against Carlton Willey (4-3).

Eddie Kasko's double in the seventh inning spoiled Williams' fair-sized bid for a no-hitter. Up to that blow at the top of the Reds' half of the frame, Stan had pitched to 18 batters in a row without giving up a hit.

Williams now has won four consecutive games.

The Dodgers' victory in the series finale with the Reds was aided by rookie Tommy Davis, who collected two hits in five trips and drove in a pair of runs. Lean Don Demeter got two hits, and Charlie Neal got two RBIs.

Massey 18-6 Win Firms Hold on Third

Second Round Action in DSL To Start Tuesday

Massey Sand and Gravel tightened its grip on third place in Desert Softball League last night with a convincing, 18-6 victory over the California Water and Telephone Company team.

The game marked the end of first round play in DSL.

RICHARD VALDIVIA hurled the win for the Massey men but

DESERT SOFTBALL LEAGUE	W.	L.
Mexican Colony	5	0
Desert Hot Springs	4	1
Massey Sand and Gravel	4	1
Telephone Company	3	2
Mazula's All-Stars	1	4
CV Shavings and Loan	1	4

Thursday Results
Massey Sand and Gravel 18, California Water and Telephone Company 6

It was the hitting support he received that simplified his task. Ben Rios clover, a bases loaded homer to pace the Massey hitting attack and Richard Lazano also registered well at the plate.

CHUCK MARTIN started on the mound for the losers and was relieved by Tom Pollack.

Second round play in the Desert Softball League will begin on Tuesday when the Phonemen tangle with Mazula's All-Stars at 8 p. m. in the Polo Grounds.

'Campy's Corner' To Make Debut

Roy Campanella, great Dodger baseball figure, hosts a new TV series, "Campy's Corner," along with Chris Schenkel as moderator, debuting on KRCA, Channel 4, Saturday night, June 25 from 6:30 to 7 p.m.

"Campy's Corner" will feature two outstanding guests each week—and not all from the sports field.

THE GUEST LIST for the 52 week film series, reads like a Who's Who: Yogi Berra, Kyle Rote, Andy Robustelli, Mickey Rooney, Florence Chadwick, Buster Crabbe Jack Benny, George Burns, Billy Graham, Rocky Graziano, Duke Snyder, Dean Martin, Willie Mays and many more will visit Roy and Chris.

Campanella, known to his millions of friends as "Campy," was one of the greatest baseball stars in Dodger history until an automobile accident left him partially crippled. Feeling his life was really over, he has found the past two years have been the most rewarding and productive in his life.

NOT ONLY has he written a best-selling book, "It's Good to be Alive," but he has been honored by numerous well-known organizations through the country for his courageous work. President Eisenhower has also hailed Campy for his wonderful qualities and work with young people.

In his spare time, Campy works with thousands of New York youngsters each year; the members of the Harlem YMCA, the PAL Boys all over the city, the youngsters from Little League who come up for Campy's special spring coaching sessions, and perhaps the most important—the disabled youngsters at the Howard Rusk Institute at Bellevue Hospital who look forward to this great man's frequent visits.

VENTURING INTO the television field, Campy's sincerity, warm personality and his easy-going manner have already won him thousands of fans in cities across the country where his series has already premiered.

In each episode Campy, along with his friend and sports expert, Schenkel, will interview the guests and show interesting film clips on their particular discussion.

Visiting "Campy's Corner" in the premier show, June 25, will be Kyle Rote, offensive captain of the New York Giants football team, and also the defensive captain, Andy Robustelli. These football experts will talk of their own personal experiences on the gridiron and also of the "hex" the Baltimore Colts have over the Giants.

WARPATH OVER, LOBBYING NOW

By VERNON SCOTT

UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Nowadays

Indians no longer go on the warpath. Instead, they send a lobby group to Washington, D. C.

Most recent case of unrest among the redmen is an uprising over the treatment of Indians in television and movie westerns. The tribes figure they've been taking a bum rap long enough.

THUS, 19 TRIBES of Oklahoma Redskins have joined to protest to Congress unfair representation on the nation's screens.

Spokesman for the disgruntled braves is Mike Ansara, a professional Indian in the defunct "Broken Arrow" TV show and current star of "Law of the Plainsman" in which he plays an Indian peace officer.

MIKE LOOKS LIKE an Indian, talks like an Indian (not with a forked tongue) and stands like an Indian (tall and straight), but he's not an Indian.

He is a Lebanese. "I am in complete sympathy with the Indians on this issue," Mike said forthrightly. "They have been greatly misrepresented. TV shows depict them as sulking murderers, liars, and as having no culture. These are false impressions and unfair to Indians."

BECAUSE MIKE is something of a hero to our red brothers, he is kept informed of Indian resentment against westerns. While the cowboys snag off all the arias, the Indians are left with spear-throwing roles in horse operas.

Ansara makes it clear that Indians are not so uncouth as television viewers have been led to believe. He hinted that some of the rich Oklahoma oil Indians may band together, buy the networks and present a flock of oaters in which a wagon train of Sioux or Pawnee are attacked by a bunch of murderous white men.

"MOST INDIAN complaints are justified," Mike said. "Historically, the major Indian-white man wars were won by Indians. Many more whites were killed in these battles than Indians. It was only by force of superior numbers that the Indians gave in."

"But TV programs always show the Indians losing to a handful of courageous white men. Such programs are not only unfair, they're inaccurate."

Richard Eyer Is Rawhide Guest Star

Richard Eyer makes a guest star appearance as a teller of tall tales in "Incident of the Roman Candle" on "Rawhide" on the CBS Television Network Friday, June 24, 7:30-8:30 p.m. (This is a rebroadcast.)

Sheb Wooley is featured in the episode as scout Pete Nolan. Trail boss Gil Faver, his ramrod Rowdy Yates and Nolan find a young boy who has set out alone across the prairie armed only with Roman candles. When they discover that the boy, Davey Colby, has lied about being orphaned by an Indian massacre, Gil assigns Pete Nolan to return Davey to his home, unaware of the boy's mission to save his father from three killers who are waiting to ambush him.

Eric Fleming and Clint Eastwood star in the series as Gil Faver and Rowdy Yates. Also featured in the cast are Beverly Garland as Jennie Colby, Bob Ellenstein as Stan Boidie, Will Wright as Grandpa, Gerold Milton as Mooney and Zon Murray as Harv.

"Rawhide" regulars, in addition to Sheb Wooley, include Paul Brinegar as Wishbone, Jim Murdoch as Mushy, Steve Raines as Jim Quince and Rocky Shahan as Joe Scarlet.

CIRCUIT OF TOP SPORTS PLANNED

Circuit of major sports highlights will be covered during the "Safeco Sports Special" with host Tom Harmon to review Olympic Boxing Trials (Finals), The Prekness (Horse Race) from Pimlico, AAU Swim Meet, Coliseum Relays (Track & Field Meet), and the Celebrity Golf Tournament, Yorba Linda, Saturday, June 25, 5 p.m., Channel 11.

Nationally known sportscasters Chris Schenkel and Jim Leaning cover the sports scene, with cameras set first at the Cow Palace in San Francisco on amateur boxing champions from all over the nation who will be competing in the Olympic Boxing Trials Finals.

MOVING TO Kentucky on the sports circuit, part two of the tri-ple Crown of racing takes place at Pimlico for the famed Preakness. Derby winner Venetian Way is touted as the winner but plenty of competition is on hand.

AAU Swimming Meet in Long Beach features great Southern California University swimmers Charlie Bitlick, Dennis Devine and Gary Tobian. With their eyes set on upcoming Olympic Trials, the swimming and diving champs will be in top form.

RAY NORTON and the San Jose State College Relay team are some of the speedsters to be on hand for the Coliseum Relays (Track & Field Meet) in Los Angeles. Annually, this top sports event produces many new records.

Swinging to the top golfing event, Schenkel and Leaning take to the Yorba Linda Country Club links for the Celebrity Tournament. Antics of many would-be par-busters, from the world of show business will be in action including funsters and punsters but good golfers—Bob Hope and Bing Crosby. More seriously intent on the game will be Ray Milland and Johnny Weissmuller.

TV Comic Falls Into Bilko Trap

"The Phil Silvers Show," Friday, June 24, at 7 p.m. on KTFV, Channel 11, concerns itself with a sagging TV comedian who falls into a typical Bilko trap.

Advertising and network executives decide that Buddy Bickford, the nation's favorite comedian, is losing his appeal. Desperate for a new programming idea, Buddy and his two writers decide to use the Army as a show background and go to Fort Baxter for material.

Sgt. Bilko, seeing an opportunity for quick profits, tries to convince the trio that "wood" is going to be the nation's new laugh word and to sell Buddy a script, "Tree Surgeon," written by a member of the platoon.

Buddy buys when Bilko's cronies laugh at the mere mention of "oak."

Dillinger Story To Be Presented

"Dillinger: A Year to Kill," a special dramatic one-time program recreating the capture and fatal shooting of the infamous law-breaker by the FBI, will be presented on the CBS Television Network Friday, June 24, 9-10 p.m. (This is a rebroadcast.)

Johnson is a contractor in both Los Angeles and the desert. The home is located on a corner immediately adjacent to Indian Wells Golf Course and the rear of the property joins the new private greens which connect both Indian Wells and Eldorado Country Clubs. Model decorator furnished homes are open for inspection daily and Sunday. A brochure is available upon request by writing to Post Office Box 277, Palm Desert. (Johnson Photo)

Appraiser Will Discuss Land Market

CREA Appraisal Unit To Hear Talk by James G. Thomas

LOS ANGELES — James G. Thomas, real estate appraiser with Coldwell, Banker and Company, will speak on "The Land Market, Its Condition and Its Trends," at a meeting of the Appraisal Division of the California Real Estate Association to be held at the Original Barbecue, 801 South Vermont Avenue, Los Angeles, on July 7. It was announced by Willard White of San Bernardino, chairman of the CREA Appraisal Division.

THOMAS WILL GIVE specific references on values of real estate in order to bring the appraisers up to date on values in areas with which they may not be currently familiar.

White said that the land market in this area is currently experiencing a substantial inflationary boom. Appraisers must study land values continuously in order to make accurate appraisals of current as well as potential future values of real properties and vacant land. He said that the speaker is a recognized authority on land values, now serving as vice chairman of the CREA Appraisal Division and also a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

APPRAISERS INTERESTED in refreshing their knowledge of land values in the Los Angeles area are welcome to attend the meeting.

Reservations should be made through the California Real Estate Association, 117 West 9th Street, Los Angeles 15; MADison 7-0428.

COUNTY WILL EYE EXTENSION FOR CODE USE AREA

Petitioners for application of the county building code to a square mile area bound by 58th on the north, 60th on the south, Jackson on the east and Monroe on the west, in the Coachella Valley area south of Indio have agreed that the proposed boundaries should be extended to be continuous with the now coded boundary only a mile away, according to a report to the Board of Supervisors this week by Building Director C. G. Bixel.

At his suggestion the petition was tabled pending a new proposal with an additional area.

"Substandard buildings, shacks and trailers were found in the area along with unsanitary conditions," as normally attendant thereto," said Bixel reporting on his investigation. "Such is normal beyond the building code area."

COUNTY DELAYS RE-ZONING OF WESTERN ESTATES AREA

Decision on changing zoning of property in Western Estates east of Palm Springs from R-2 (multiple family dwellings) to R-1 (one-family dwellings) was delayed by the Board of Supervisors this week at the request of Sidney Horvitz, attorney for A. Guttman, subdivider of the property. Horvitz said it would be unfair to purchasers to change the zone for which they had purchased it.

"Why aren't the owners here to protest themselves?" asked Supervisor George Berkey.

HORVITZ REPLIED that the subdivider is the recorded owner at present and buyers are scattered over a wide area and know nothing of the proposed change. The supervisors asked the planning commission to reconsider the proposed change along with proposed changes to R-3 and commercial in an area bound on the south by McCallum Way, on north by 30th Avenue and approximately 190 feet east of Los Ninos.

THE SUPERVISORS previously (May 16) approved restricted commercial and general residential zoning for Guttman between Ramon and Aliso Roads.

The other zoning changes proposed by planning commission initiative on other property in the Guttman subdivision area were approved by the supervisors. There was no opposition at this week's hearing.

The re-zoning involves changes in both commercial and residential zoning over a wide area bounded by Palm Drive on the east and the Whitewater River on the west between 34th and Ramon, and between McCallum and 30th; bounded by Sanford Drive on the east and Whitewater River on the west between Ramon and McCallum; and bounded by Palm Drive on the east and Landau on the west between 30th and Vista Chino.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

More Data on Desert Trees

In last week's garden article we wrote of trees foolishly believing we would have sufficient material to complete that issue. When the article was completed we realized how far from right we were; hence we will continue listing trees that can be grown in the low desert, omitting those we deem unsatisfactory or over difficult to grow.

For a windbreak we would consider the tamarisk as most satisfactory especially where westerly, northwesterly and northwest by north winds are encountered. However the tamarisk is by no means a garden tree as it throws off considerable bark and falling leaves. With the rapid growth of new homes the use of tamarisk — or Athel as it is botanically known — the use of this tree has diminished over the last 10 years.

ACCORDING TO REAL old timer Charlie Doyle, who originally pioneered among other prospects Deep Well Ranch, Smoke Tree Ranch and part of the middle of Palm Springs, an old arbor-culturist brought in from Arabia the first cuttings of Tamarisk when first the tamarisk was blessed as a potent windbreak in the valley.

Castor Bean trees are easily grown but we would not recommend them for garden use. They grow too rapidly and are distinctly throwers-off of debris. They are also about the first to droop in cold climate and the leaves that fall are of a very dirty black and abundant.

ON THE CONTRARY the weeping bottle brush is hardy to 15 degrees, a temperature that is not liable to visit this part of our desert. Its growth is to about 20 to 25 feet and generally has a spread of 12 to 15 feet. It should be planted in full sun, has a drooping habit and needs plenty of water. In May one could look out for feathery, flame-red bloom.

Cypress — There are many species of this tree but localities have found the Italian Cypress or the Arizona cypress best in our climate. They are not as hungry for water as the weeping bottle brush but need trimming attention occasionally to eliminate the woody and untidy appearance. The taller of the two, Italian cypress, seems to grow more compact than the Arizona species. Mature trees of either kind generally reach 50 feet in height or more.

IF MR. AMATEUR Gardener is looking for a real slow grower he might consider the olive tree. It seldom reaches over 25 feet but has a wide growth of spread. The bark is grey and leaves green. Before the olives appear you can look forward to white blooms. Although they are drought resistant they thrive best here if they can enjoy some shade during the hottest part of the day.

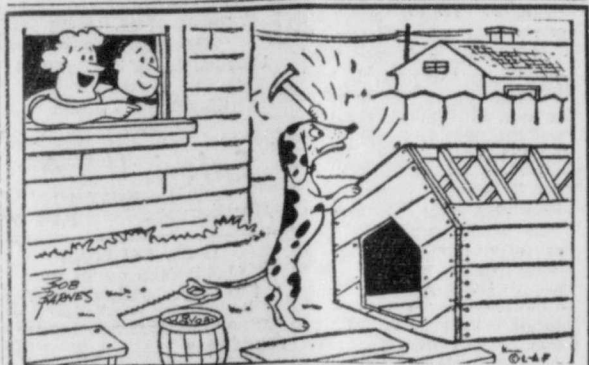

For garden or lawn growth we would not advise the pepper tree. One particular drawback is its shallow root system and its eventual height. Even if it is hardy to 10 degrees there still is the question of securely shading so high a tree from prevailing winds.

WHITE LILY — Here is a tree that at certain seasons of the year might be mistaken for a young oak, but the bloom of its tiny white flowers that look somewhat like Lily of the Valley would soon change one's mind. Like azaleas and camellias this tree requires acid soil that is kept damp so mix a lot of peat-moss with the soil. In the heat of summer time it would be fine to irrigate three times a week to start with. Its hardiness seems help against wind and cold. Having gone over our mark we'll leave palms until next week. —T.G.M.
